

Sorority Sisters Fete
Prxy on Anniversary
 Mrs. G. B. (Ruth) Owens was honored on the occasion of her 25th wedding anniversary when members of Tau Delta Omega sorority met at the Paul Smith home, 2727 Gramercy Ave., Monday evening.

White appointed tables carried out the anniversary theme, and cheese-filled buns, relishes, potato chips and coffee were served as refreshments.

The honoree was presented with a radio-clock by the group. Mrs. Owens is president of Tau Delta Omega.

Pinochle was enjoyed afterwards, and prizes went to Mesdames Owens and Helen Smith.

Noted Football Hero
Visits Parents Here
 Visiting his parents at their 1724 Greenwood Ave. home this month is Rano Sullivan, noted football player at the College of Idaho, and his wife, who lives in Caldwell.

Also at the R. D. Sullivan residence is Mrs. Sullivan's mother, Mrs. Ethel Anderson; her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson and Harlan. They are all from Antlers, Okla.

Little Sandra Sullivan, daughter of Rano and his wife, also is staying with her grandparents. The little miss is just 1 year old.

Riviera Misses Camp Under Stars at El Retiro Park

OPEN WIDE . . . Little "Andy" Seder of 268 Vista del Parque mimics Marca Wright, recreation director at El Retiro Park this summer, as the pretty miss hurriedly gulps down a plate of spaghetti before her small charges come with another problem. The THS graduate, with the help of assistant recreation directors, chaperoned a group of girls at the park on an all-night outing. Spaghetti supper at 8:30 o'clock started off the festivities; the girls, of all ages, served themselves and did clean-up duty afterward.

SLOW POKE . . . At least that's what Patsy Kelly, of 1026 Ave. H is saying to Jeanie Pharris of 137 Via Colusa. The miss, with arms akimbo, is in a hurry to join other festivities taking place at the camp. Jeanie is making sure her plate is sparkling clean.

DOWN WE GO . . . Slide was the center of activity at the Park, with the merry-go-round and swings running close second and third. Gals shifted around so many times while this photo was being snapped that identification was pretty hard, but these misses are somewhere in the vicinity: Mary Frances Stone of 454 Calle de Aragon, Jan Geissler of 836 Calle de Arboles; Margaret Palmer of 223 Paseo de Granada; Susan Regan of 265 Vista del Parque; Jean Dainauskus of 204 Via Colusa; and Barbara Henning of 308 Via Pasqual.

WCTU SETS MEET
 The Rev. Walter M. Stanton of the United Brethren Church will be the afternoon speaker when the Women's Christian Temperance Union meets tomorrow, at the Nazarene Church. Session will begin at 11:30 a.m. and conclude at 1 p.m.

Ruth Rice, County WCTU president, will take the speaker's rostrum in the morning.

P.V. Players to Perform 'Cyrano' at Long Beach

In a formal dress concert-reading, the Palos Verdes Players will present highlights from the four acts of Cyrano de Bergerac when they appear at Municipal Arts Center, 2300 W. Ocean Blvd., Long Beach, next Sunday, Aug. 22, at 4 p.m.

With Stan Johnson, director, in the leading role, the Players will be special guests of the Long Beach Arts Association. A party and reception in their honor from 3 to 6 p.m. has been arranged by Samuel Heaverlich, director of the Long Beach group, and the public is invited to attend.

Supporting Johnson will be Virginia Hunter as Roxanne; Jim Bridgeman as Christian; Dick Twoby as LaBret; Chuck Durrell as Valvert; and Nadine Nicol as the nurse.

The famous "nose" speech of Cyrano, during the performance at the Hotel le Bourgogne, will set the pace for the balcony scene of the second act of the play, to be followed by "Roxanne's Kiss" when Cyrano makes love to the heroine through the person of his friend, Christian.

Throughout the reading, a musical background of ancient airs and dances by Edmund Rostand, written in the 17th Century era of the drama, will be played.

TONIGHT PERSONALITY CLUB TOPIC

Aquarians and their guests will get pointers on projecting their personalities tonight at 8 o'clock when Harold E. Cooke appears as headline speaker at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave., Manhattan Beach.

An educator and former head of the Counselor-Employer Relations with the Civil Service in World War II, Cooke believes that the purpose of life, as we know it, and of the universe as a whole, is a growth and forward movement, Mrs. Fay Johnson, press chairman, said.

The public is invited to attend and there is no admission charge. Further information may be obtained by calling FR 4-7798.

TAYLORS FETED AT BON VOYAGE DINNER

Rev. Don Shelby and Mrs. Chelcia Shelby entertained Rev. and Mrs. John L. Taylor and their daughters Kathleen, Marilyn and Virginia at dinner Sunday, occasioned by a month's vacation for the Taylors in the East.

During their travels Rev. and Mrs. Taylor plan to attend the World Council of Churches meeting at Evanston, Ill.

Other guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Routh and Cynthia of Torrance and Miss Dorothy Norvell of Whittier.

John, registration; G. H. Nelson, registration co-chairman; C. W. Shephard, room representative; T. R. Biglin, school education; F. Deck, ways and means; and R. Gerhart, co-ways and means.

Scout Trails

BROWNIE TROOP 758, sponsored by 259th Pl. PTA, enjoyed their first summer social, a cook-out at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Sawyer, recently.

After a supper of hot dogs and watermelon, Mrs. F. Deck and Mrs. R. W. Gerhart led the girls in games and songs. Enjoying the fun were Pamela Burke, Judy Campbell, Lynne Cole, Connie Chitwood, Ellen and Elaine Deck, Peggy Gerhart, Linda Holloway, Cathy Keppel, Ceila Sawyer, Ruth Scott, and Shelia Weirich.

A patio party before school starts is on the agenda for BOY SCOUT TROOP 953, sponsored by the Perry School PTA. Mrs. C. J. Simpson will be PTA chairman of the event.

In spite of the superstition that Friday the 13th is unlucky, GIRL SCOUTS OF PERRY PTA'S TROOP 867 were lucky enough when they enjoyed skating at the Torr Roller Dome that evening to join in a special grand march for Girl Scouts only.

Uniformed misses attending were Sandra Baillie, Carolyn Barre, Deanna White, Sandra Cage, Linda Evans, Carol Ann and Patty Hanna, Judy Daily, Suzy Yatez, Carolyn Lunden, Nancy Collins, Sally Robinson, Penny Rudy, Gloria Stinger, Judy Ward, Christine and Donita Warner, Linda Brown, Sharon Throop, Sylvia and Patty Chase, and Joann Runstead.

The girls, led by Mrs. Rod Baillie, will complete requirements for their second class badges during an outing at Griffith Park on Sept. 4.
